PAPER

Please find below and/or attached an Office communication concerning this application or proceeding.

The time period for reply, if any, is set in the attached communication.

RESPONSE TO AMENDMENT

1. Claims 67, 68 and 73-95 are pending in the application, claims 74-86 are withdrawn from consideration due. Claims 1-66 and 69-72 have been cancelled.
2. Amendments to the claims, filed on November 26, 2007, have been entered in the above-identified application.

REJECTIONS

3. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

5. Claims 67, 68 and 73 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter, which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. In the instant case new claim 87 contain(s) the limitation “an organic polymer layer formed over one or more layers of material including a dielectric layer.” The only disclosure in the specification does regarding a dielectric layer is with regard to the prior art figure 1 (page 2, paragraph [0003]), therefore this limitation is considered new matter.

The new matter must be deleted.

6. Claims 87-95 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter, which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. In the instant case new claim 87 contain(s) the limitation “a dielectric layer formed over the first substrate; an organic polymer layer formed over the dielectric layer.” The only disclosure in the specification does regarding a dielectric layer is with regard to the prior art figure 1 (page 2, paragraph [0003]), therefore this limitation is considered new matter.

The new matter must be deleted.

ANSWERS TO APPLICANT’S ARGUMENTS

7. Applicant’s arguments in the response filed November 26, 2007 regarding the previous rejections of record have been considered but are moot due to the new grounds of rejection.

Conclusion

8. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
